No. 2 of 2019

Filing of Constitutional Redress for Remandees
And Serving Inmates

Further to the High Court (Constitutional Redress) Rules 2015 in order to regularize the filing of applications, I provide the following direction:

That all Constitutional Redress applications by Serving Inmates/Remandees are to be made at the High Court located in the Division of the Corrections Facility where the applicant is being held; i.e.

1. Those serving their sentences or being remanded in a Corrections Facility in the Central/Eastern Division are to file their respective applications at the High Court in Suva;
2. Those serving sentences or being remanded in a Western Division Facility are to file their applications at the Lautoka High Court; and
3. Those serving sentences or being remanded in a Northern Division Facility are to file their applications at the Labasa High Court.
